Washington correspondent of the New Orleans Crescent, in describing the Sickles-Key tragedy, tells the following:

Sickles is a Catholic, his spiritual adviser a priest, and a sensible man. Yesterday, this priest told a friend that he was going to get the "Lady of the Lake" for Sickles to read. "That's a strange book for a man in his condition to read." "Not at all," said the priest, "my business is to keep his courage and his spirits up under the first terrible collapse from excitement. [For the Louisville Courier.] Flour Inspection.

Editors Louisville Courier: A writer, signing imself " Public," has come to the rescue of the Flour Inspectors and their originators-the Council. He has advanced some overwhelming arguents, certainly. He says that the Council have added another link to the chain of proof of their wirdom by voting against the repeal of the flour inspection law-as it is for the public good they act-and the public is saved frequently from five to ten pounds of flour per barrel by inspection. If the links in their chain are all such as this, they are made of miserable stuff. Who ever saw an inspector weigh a barrel of flour? I would wager that neither one of them have a scale to the penitentiary.

"Public" says the Council give an assurance that the flour is just and right by the fuspectors' hrand, and the poor man is thus protected. Deliver us from such friends! We have heard of the poor man's friend hefore. On the eve of an election they are quite common. The idea is append to cheapen inecac. Doctors will hereafter enough to cheapen ipecac. Doctors will hereafter prescribe it as an easy and simple emetic. We know what the Iuspector abstracts from the harrel with his enormous Artesian well-boring auger— his poor man's friend. We do not know that the miller gives short weight, as his reputation is at stake, and exposure certain. Does the inspection law authorize such instruments, and the plunging of them three or four times into every harrel? so, is it for the good of the poor man? If they have such sympathy for the poor man, amend the law, give him a lew more plunges, and the inspec-darling frieuds, the poor.

"I'ublic" will have to try it again; Citizen could have furnished him stronger arguments than he has presented, but nothing sufficient to justify compulsory inspection, which is all that is complained of by millers, hakers and dealers, whose interests are directly consistent with the process of the control ests are directly opposite—as much as parties can be—and who unitedly and without exception pe-titioned the Council for the repeal of the law. It Corpets and household goods ever imported is useless to repeat what has been said on this subject. In New York, New Orleans, and the other principal cities, the law is voluntary, and wherever it is not, they are crying out against it. The public can be measurably protected by voluntary inspection—not by compulsory inspection. The defendant paying plaintiff's lawyer won't do.

James Guthrie, and the next Presidency. We take from the article the following extract, to inform our readers what some of the knowing ones in the State of the Hon. Jefferson Davis think of Mr. Guthrie and the Presidency in 1860. Here is what the Mississippian says:

Among the excellent names recently introduced Among the excellent names recently introduced to public notice in connection with the distinguished position, is that of James Guthrie, of Kentucky. Without being a professional place man, he has engaged in public service long enough to prove himself a statesman of the highest order. His locality is favorable. He is a Southern man, and yet sufficiently Western to propitiate a section whose claims are urged on the ground that it has never had a President. He has no bad antecedents; but his record is such as to commend him to the waym support of the true Democracy. him to the warm support of the true Democracy in every part of the country. His identity with the Administration of Mr. Pierce throughout is a strong indorsement of his qualification on the score of principle to meu of the State Rights

4. That the proceedings of this meeting be pub-ished in the Louisville Conrier and Lou brents made some brief remarks concerning the brated John Newtand Mallitt, the actor and preach er, who was taken into castody upon a charge made by a person named II. II. Bi dle, of obtaining money upon takes precessed. The case came up on Saturday, before Judge Pruden, and in its detail exhibited an extraordinary amount of confidence among all parties. It seems that Mallitt first met Biddle upon a steambout, coming from Memphis to this city, when he informed him that he was building a boat, and intimated that he stood in need of a little immediate cash. Biddle unoney Maffitt had deposited with Bishop & Co., and to his confusion he discovered that "mary a red" was placed to his account. He at once concluded that the steamhoat was all vapor, and hence the arrest of Mallitt. It was proved, how-ever, at the examination, that the latter had ac-tually given an order for the boat, the keel of which is laid, and the contractor asserts farther

ARREST OF AFRICANS .- It is rumored that the ARREST OF AFRICANS.—It is rumored that the United Stales Marshal has arrested in Alabama thirty-seven of the Africans imported in the Wanderer. We see by the Savannah papers that two of these Africans who were some weeks ago arrested in that city, have been judicially surrendered to C. A. L. Lamar, who claimed them as his property. The court, however, required him to give bonds in $1,000 to defend his right of property in the negroes in any suit that may be roperty in the negroes in any suit that may be ereafter brought against him for their recovery. A Madame Natin, mother of seven children, was reduced by excessive hemorrhages to the point of death. So nearly was she lifeless that only the nicest auscultation could discover any beating of her heart. Her physician, Dr. Dutems, at this juncture, called in a stent workman from her estate, and with the usual instrumentation, transferred a large quantity of his hearthy blood transferred a large quantity of his heafthy blood into her weakened veins. Life at once seemed to revire, and singularly enough, the hemorrhage which it had been impossible to arrest previously stopped with the in-flowing of other blood. From this moment her recovery was rapid, and she is now completely recovered.

STYLES OF CRINOLINE.—It is stated, for the information of husbands and papes, that there are seventy different styles of skirt, and each style has its own name, corresponding much to the "brand of cigars, flonr or wine. These names are chiefly arbitrary, and there are, for instance, La Sylpt, the Crystal, the Union Balmoral, the Palmetto, the Opera, etc. Others again have singlify descriptive names—such as the "Expansion," the "Union Corded," the "Honiton Fine Lace, etc. while still others hear titles of dread mysterious import, such as the "Union Heir" and the "Pala-

LOUISVILLE: WEDNESDAY, ..... MARCH 16, 1859. Reading Matter on Every Page.

The Opposition Platform-No. V. The fifth plank in the Know Nothing platform i very black. It is as much Sambo as Sam. It is nigger all over, and free-nigger all under. It is divided into four sections, each one of which is as comfortable a board as ever Sambo took a snooze upon. On paper it is as follows: 5. It is a Sectional Party.

It has agitated the slavery question for party purposes, until it has driven nearly the whole North from its ranks. Whilst thus agitating for the purpose of consolidating the whole South under its party rule, it was reckless of that necessary consequence, the sectionalizing of the whole North with its superior strength into an opposing party; reckless of the evil effects of bringing the whole nation to an angry, sectional contest on the slave line, and utterly reckless of the consequent peril to the Union. It was guilty of the blunder of supposing that the consolidation of the South under the recommentate all ander its rule would more than compensate al that it would lose in parry strength at the North. It has not merely succeeded in sectionalizing itself, but also in sectionalizing a great opposing party at the North, which seems to have anti-slavery for the principal article of its creed. Whilst there is not a foot of territory left upon which the opposing ideas of these parties on the slavery question can have any practical bearing, jet their abstractions are made the absorbing topic of political discussion, to the infinite injury of great national interests, and the driving of nearly the whole nation into one or the other of two sectional parties, a prolonged strile between which cannot but result in disunion. Whilst most Democrats have started and kept up the agitation of the slave question for a supposed party benefit, the disunion Democrats have co-operated with the Abolitionists in aiding the agitation from their mutual hate of the Union.

Everything tends to prove that so long as the Democracy retains power, the tisunionists will allow the nation no peace on the slavery question. When Kansas no longer promises to keep it alive, they try to give it new vitality by advocating the opening of the Africau slave trade, a scheme which, as it has no chance of success, can be founded on no motive but that of ngitating. They stimulate the agitation by encouraging the smuggling of cargoes of Africans. They audaciously insutithe whole nation by giving impunity to the piratical felons who effected the smuggling. They incite their grand juries to a practical sort of aulification of the nation's law, and justify them for refusing to judict the persons engaged in this piratical traffic. allow the nation no peace on the slavery question.

that Spain through all departments of her gov gravate her against us, and indefinitely postpone the chane of peaceful acquisition. The scheme, if succere, would be a gross blunder; as an elec-tioneering trick, to furnish material for the uext Presidential campaign, it is a most shallow arti-tice. Its surroundings have created a suspicion that the scheme to obtain thirty millions of secret service money covers up an undetected plan of public plander for private or party benefit.— Groundiess as that suspicion may be, there can be no doubt that the principal motive with most of the party is the re-agilation of the slave ques-tion, with a view to our national elections. Impracticable as the scheme is, and so obviously eurged from a motive paramount to the desire its desire to agitate the slave question, and for

It will be observed that the first section is som what of a Jeremiade over the stupidity of the De mocracy in losing so much strength at the North while consolidating the armies of the South into one invincible phalanx on the slavery question True, the Opposition say this move of the Democracy was reckless, but still they somewhat pity the recklessness that squandered so much North ern power. This is rather kind in them, but how much kinder would they feel if they could gather up and appropriate this supposed lost power of the Democracy? They are now aiming to do this. but they will fail under the name of Opposition, as they did under the titles of Know Nothing and American. They admit that the Democracy have the South as an unit, (an admission which is by no means complementary to them as Southern men.) and we can assure them that the Democracy have enough strength in the North to combine with this Southern power for carrying our national elections, and saving the Union from the clutches of such an enemy as the Opposition. It is not true, as stated in the second section, that "there is not a foot of territory left upon which the opposing i 'eas of these parties on the slavery question can have any practical bearing.' To say nothing of other territory now belonging to the United States, or hereafter to be acquired, there is a country 800 miles in length, and 750 miles in breadth, embracing an area of 237,504 square miles, nearly seven times as great as the State of Kentncky, every foot of which is open to the question of slavery or freedom. In 1846 this vast domain was admitted into the Union, under the name of Texas, as a sovereign State, with the understanding that at a future day it should be divided into five States. When the time for this division comes, who, we ask, will vote in Congress for the admission of these sub-divisions of Texas as slave States, and who will contend for their admission as free soll? We had an exam ple in the Kansas question before the last Congress of how parties will stand on the Texas question. Crittenden, Marshall, and Underwood, three leading Know Nothings from this State, voted with the Abolitionists against the admission of Kansas as a slave State, and if the Opposition should live until Texas is ready for sub-divisions. and have power enough to elect a Congressman from this State, the member sent to Washington by them will vote with the AbolitionIsts against the sub-divisions of Texas coming into the Union as slave States, and upon some pretext, however frivolous, so conduct themselves, and so cast their votes, that the five sub-divisions will come into the Union as free States. Hence we say there is territory about which the opposing parties on the slavery question can quarrel in the future: and quarrel they will about it, for the Democracy will go for the sub-divisions of Texas coming into the Union as slave States, in accordance with the articles of annexation, and the Free-Soilers, including some Know Nothings, will oppose such an

The charges in the third section, like most of them in the whole platform, are merely the acts of individuals arrayed against the Democracy as a party. We might as legitimately condemn the whole Opposition party for growling because one of its members growls, or for using brass knucks because some of their scamps use them, as for them to condemn the Democracy because some Democrats are in favor of re-opening the slave trade. Doubtless there are Know Nothings as much in favor of re-opening this trade as Democrats, but the thing is not a party measure engrafted upon the national platform of either the Democratic or the national platform of either the Democratic or Know Nothing party, to our knowledge. The authors of the Opposition platform show that they either can't distinguish between individual and party acts, or that they are too great knaves and demagognes to acknowledge the distinction.

The charge in the last section that the Demo cratic party have sprung the Cuba question to fuel the flame of sectional agitation, etc., is as silly declared themselves in favor of the acquisition of the waters of 20,000 miles of navigable rivers, be-

It may come in a short time, superinduced by the present warlike state of Europe, or it may be long in arriving. Artificial Light in the World.

The Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety and simplicity. Far be yound any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flam and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas but in brilliancy and purity of light, it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of whick; and the construction of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures is so simplified in the list of the fixtures the fixture free from odor while burning, as, by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere producing perfect combustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced, by those who have had it he constant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, the obeing no dickering of unsteadiness in the flame. The Vesper Gas lightly portable, and can be used in town or country—in fact, where ever artificial light is required. The fixtures themselve are adapted in styles to suit all lastes, from the plaining light burner to the most costly chandelier. Each chandelier is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be made for service pipes. The gas is generated in thorner, and all fixtures, from the cheap single ligh burner to the expensive chandelier, are miniature gas works in themselves. They are sold at prices which do not exceed the cost of ordinary gas fixtures of similar styles and ornamentation. A price list will be sent to any address on application. NO. 470 MAIN STREET,

In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on soricity scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boxhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction luto the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medically living must be acknowledged. American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medi-olial virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous nee of ardent spirita, or other forms of dissipation. Gon-erally instantaneous in effect, it fluids its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and visor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a begerage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spiril-ed, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordiel, possessed of angular remedial properties.

The great popularity of this delightfut Aroma has to-duced many initiations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Borrhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

The hulk of the Princess was found sank in fourteen feet water, fastened to the levee in the Manchac bend, cprosite the plantation of Mr. Bird.
The larboard wheel, portions of her bow and her machinery were out of water. The diving hell boat Southerner had been at work on the wreck, a .d had brough out the hog chains, upper piles and some portions of the iron works. Hopes were entertained that the safe which contains a large amount of money—estimate some as high as $30,000 or $10,000—will be recove and that the cotton in the hold, supposed to be 300 bales, will also be saved. A tier or so of cotton on the iar-board slie will also be saved. The bank of the river was strawn, for a long distance, with cotton and other fragments of the wreck.

BOATS BUILDING OUT WEST.—It will be seen by the following from a St. Louis paper, that a bout has been launched on the Osage: BLACK DILMOND POLTRY .- We defy any one to read the following lines and not exclaim, THE JAMES GUTHRIE.

The Curbrile is a bonny hoat, As every hody knows; Ten barges at a time she'll float. And then she's not so slow. Her captain, he's as true assteel, wharf last evening among the packets going out. The Republic and Fanny Bullitt were receiving fine trips for New Orleans, and the Magnolia was discharging a heavy cargo. A drove of sheep, for the Fanny Bullitt, plumged into the river instead of the boat, following each other just "like a flock The Henderson puckets, Tishomingo and Seioto Vo. 2, were blowing in opposition, the latter rath er having the call of the people, from the alleged fact, so said, that she was taking 'em for nothing, and allowing each half he could make on the trip.

The High Flyer was as busy as a bee taking in the people for all points, North or South, or Pike's Peak, Capt. Wright making it a rule to let no one slip. The other boats at the wharf were the Admiral, Antelope, Chancellor, Kate Howard, David Tatum, and Empire—a good string.

The Admiral is in charge of our clever friend Pete Fleming. She is a few feet too long for the canal locks, and there is hardly water enough on the ralls to let her over. She has 900 bales of cot-the talls to let her over. She has 900 bales of cot ton for the East. The Jas. Montgomery and Defender ar rived at New Orleans Sunday.

The Fanny Bullitt, having been detained completing her cargo, takes her departure to New

The gallant Woodford, having been refit-

The Pittsburgh Gazette of Monday has note of a fleet of boats preparing to start out West, including the new packet Northerner, Capt. Alford, for the Missouri. The Moderator, Cambridge, Henry Graff, Argonaut and Monongabela, were also loading for the Western rivers.

We learn from the New Orleans Delta, of last Wednesday, that the Tigress, Capt. Hopkins, has been withdrawn from the Onchita, and would "make a break" for the Ohio, and Pike's Peak. The Lower Mississippi was steadily rising at the last accounts, the water along at Plaquemine and Baton Rouge being only 14 inches below the flood of last spring.

The Robt. J. Ward, from New Orleans, was at Evansville yesterday morning. She was due last night, and returns to New Orleans to-morow.

Shippers and passengers must bear in nind that the John Ganlt is the regular packet for Nashville to-morrow. Thanks to the officers of the Ward for a manifest, forwarded by Philips & Co., of the Cairo wharf boat.

FOR THE EAST.—The long armed thunderbolt, Telegraph No. 3, is the regular mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati at noon to-day. She travels at locomotive speed, and connects with all the early trains going East.

MAIL PACKET FOR MEMPHIS.—The fleet low pres-cure Southerner, Capt. Triplett, is the mail and passenger packet for Cario and Memphis this evening. She starts punctually at 5 o'clock, and takes the mail to all landings along the Ohio river, and will take freight and passengers to Memphis. She is a neat, comfortable boat, and passengers, in Captain Archer, the clerk, will find a very accom-modating officer. odsting officer.

For TENNESSEE RIVER. — The staunch John Tompkina, Capt. Evans, having most of her freight engaged, starts to Eastport, Florence, and all points along Tennessee river this evening. Our courteous young friend Robert Barclay attends to the clerk's office. The Jacob Poe, a good, strong boat, is also advertised for the Tennessee this evening. Capt.

ENDEAVOR OFF.—Yesterday, as we anticipated, the Endeavor had succeeded in leaving her fast berth on the rocks in front of Corn island, and was safely landed at the wharf. The swell in the river helped her off: OUTRACEOUS ACT.—We learn that while Mr. Prank Matheny, of this city, pilot on the N. W. Thomas, was asleep in his berth, at Cincinnati, he

OUR tobacco factory was very near being destroyed by fire on the night of the 7th of January, on Main, near Ninth streets. The roof being partially burned, our boxes under press were removed in the street, and were partially damaged by the water and rough handling of the boxes. Mr. J. B. Mclivaine, the agent of the Peorla Insurance Company, came very promptly and ordered the roof to be repaired, &c. Arbitrators were mutually chosen, the damages satisfactorily aranged, and he has this day paid the damages in full, allowing claims for labor in protecting the house from the flames, and for removing the stock out and back into the house. And with promptness on the part of the agent, and on the part of the company in paying losses, I hope to see the Peorla office eucceed to a good share of business in our city.

The Problem Marine and Flee Interest and Tribune, Feb. 12th, 1859.]

The Problem Marine and Flee Interest and Company for our columns this morning. It is the first detailed exhibit of the condition of any home company that we have ever seen, and compares most invorably with the statements of the best Eastern companies. Such an array of assets, amounting in all to $352,556 24, shows most conclusively that we have a company in our own State, as sound and as well managed as any other, no matter where located. As it regards its promptness and liberality in the settlement of its losses, no company has a better reputation. The Peoria Company is doing business in most of the Western and Southern States, including Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Missouri and Keatucky, where it is obliged to file an annusistatement of its condition and to comply with the same laws that are required of all Eastern companies. The fact that the company can comply with the laws of those States, which are regarded as very onerous by many companies, shows that it has tho necessary capital, and as available assets as any other company, being subjected to the same provisions.

The Officers and Directors of this company are men of tried avaerience and unbiemished interrity, and the suc-
